

CSRG 2023 Dublin Presentation Schedule (DRAFT)

Thursday 7th September
Time	Synge Theatre
9.30 - 10am	Tea and Coffee
10 - 10.30am	Welcome and Introduction: Local Organisers, Prof. Jane Stout, Minister Eamon Ryan
10.30 - 11.15am	Keynote: Prof. Malene Freudendal-Pederson - Is it all just words? - How do we get from cycling as storytelling to cycling as actual planning
11.15 - 11.30am	Tea and Coffee
	Room 1 - Simon Perry	Room 2 - Simon Perry	Room 3 - Synge Theatre
11.30am - 1pm	Session 1 - Networks Developing Ireland's Cycle Network – Lessons Learned - Hugh McCarthy (AECOM, Ireland) (IP) Assessing the Equity Impacts of European Bicycle Master Plans - Isabel Cunha & Cecilia Silva (University of Porto, Portugal) (IP) Advocates or Auditors? - Gerald O'Halloran (Dublin Cycling Campaign) (IP) Formulations, frames, and precedents: Unmaking history in public meetings - Karly Coleman (University of Alberta, Canada) (RE)	Session 2 - Cycling in Older Age Cycling as mobility for older and disabled people in Active Neighbourhoods - Ian Cookson, Graeme Sheriff (University of Salford, UK) (IP) Planning for longevity: cycling cessation and later life mobility - Wilbert den Hoed (Universitat Rovira i Virgili), Carol Kachadoorian (dbTilde CORE, Inc.) (Hybrid) Cycling Without Age – Planning for inclusive, slow social cycling for all ages and abilities - Clara Clark (Cycling Without Age, Ireland) (IP)	Session 3 - Histories Cycling past and present: an oral histories approach in Sheffield - Stephen Parkes, Mia Rafalowicz-Campbell (Sheffield Hallam University, UK) (IP) Cycling in the Netherlands in daily life in the 70's and 80's through the eyes of women - Angela van der Kloof (Mobycon, NL) (IP) (Re)discovering the past, imagining the future: a History Lab for Lisbon's cycling policies - Diego Cavalcanti, M Luisa Sousa (University of Lisbon, Portugal) (IP) Cycling boom 2.0 - How grassroots movements triggered new local cycling policies - Martin Lanzendorf (Goethe-University Frankfurt, Germany) (IP)
1 - 1.45pm	Lunch

1.45 - 3.15pm	Session 4 - (Bi)cycles Dublin Bike Library: shared mobility for families - Francesco Pilla, Pavlos Tafidis (University College Dublin) (IP) Evidence from E-Cargo Bike Demonstration Limerick - Anne Cronin & Conor Buckely (Limerick Cycle Campaign) (IP) Exploring cycles as governable objects - Daniel Valentini (Swedish University of Agricultural Sciences) (IP) - DISCUSSION Dublin Bike Library: shared mobility for families - Francesco Pilla, Pavlos Tafidis (University College Dublin) (IP) - DISCUSSION	Session 5 - Cycling in Younger Age Safe Routes to School: A collaborative approach to advancing active travel for students - Tracey Lydon (An Taisce EEU - Safe Routes to Schools Programme, Ireland) (IP) “Planning should be all encompassing. It shouldn’t exclude children.” To what extent are children participating within planning policy and practice in Galway City.” - Alistair Menary (TU Dublin) (IP) Gears or brakes? Active travel policy for children and young people in Scotland - Caroline Brown (Heriot-Watt University, Edinburgh) (IP)	Session 6 - Discourses The “cycling city of Stockholm”: Productive, convenient, and connected mobility for all? - Karin Edberg (Linköping University, Sweden) (IP) Cycleway Opposition in Dún Laoghaire-Rathdown: Exploring the Role of Discourse - Robert Egan & Brian Caulfield (Trinity College Dublin) (IP) Blame Games: The Assignment of Blame in Everyday Traffic Situations Involving Cyclists - Nadia Williams (Technological University Dublin, Ireland) (IP) Contesting the fifteen-minute city: Dispatches from the “cycling city” of Oxford, UK. - Tim Jones (Oxford Brookes University, UK) (IP)
3.15 - 3.30pm	Tea & Coffee
	Synge Theatre
3.30 - 5pm	Session 7 - Systems In a society which is resistant to change, what is the best way to deliver active travel infrastructure in a climate emergency? - Michèle Costello & Róisín Ni Dhubhda (Dún Laoghaire-Rathdown County Council) (IP) Cyclist.ie’s Experiences of Engaging with the Planning System on Cycling Schemes - Damien O’Tuama & Colm Ryder (Cyclist.ie) (IP) The Socio-Political Processes of Cycling Planning in Tehran as a Car-Centric Environment - Mohammad Nazarpour Tarbiat Modares (University of Tehran, Iran) & Farzaneh Bahrami (University of Groningen, Netherlands) (Hybrid - TBC) How to make this machine fight climate change? - Farzaneh Bahrami (University of Groningen, Netherlands) (TBC) Cycle propensity modelling: An extreme cycling uptake study - Billy Brazil, Karen Whitaker, Barry Colleary (National Transport Authority) Robert Egan, Brian Caulfield (Trinity College Dublin) (IP)
5.30 - 7pm	Social Cycle with Dublin Cycling Campaign & Cyclist.ie
7pm	Conference Dinner - Location TBC

Friday 8th September
Time	Simon Perry 1	Simon Perry 2
9 - 9.30am	Tea and coffee
9.30 - 11am	Session 8 - Solidarities “My reason to leave the bed”, a mixed methods evaluation of Muslim women’s cycle rides - Esther Anaya-Boig (Independent), Sarah Javaid & Emma Pajarillaga (Cycle Sisters) (IP) Cycling against all odds: families everyday struggles for cycling in socially vulnerable and transport disadvantaged areas - Dag Balkmar (Örebro Universit, Sweden) (RE) Whose streets? Our streets! Bicibús movement for cycling child-friendly cities - Gemma Simón i Más, Anna Aretha Sach (Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona) (IP) Cycle Space Invaders - Gamification of social media as a tool to protect cycle infrastructure - Keith Phelan (vool.ie) (IP)	Session 9 - Spaces Build it and they will come? The multiple effects of a new infrastructure on cycling practice and experience - Patrick Rérat & Aurélie Schmassmann (University of Lausanne, Switzerland) (RE) Proactive safety assessments for cycling infrastructure in Ireland: The potential role of the traffic conflict technique and surrogate measures of safety - Kevin Gildea (Lund University, Sweden) (TBC) Cycling and other Active Mobility Infrastructure for Older Adult Communities: How Common and Complete Are They? - Carol Kachadoorian (dbiTilde CORE, Inc.), Yongping Zhang (California State Polytechnic University, Pomona) (IP) Cycling infrastructures in the North American metropolis: the emerging geographies and differential strategies of infrastructural reconfiguration for cycling in Mexico City and Toronto - Thomas Van Laake (University of Manchester, UK) (IP)
11 - 11.15am	Tea & Coffee
11.15 - 12.15pm	Discussion 1: Dublin City Council’s Active Travel Network: An exploratory discussion on maximising societal benefit – Christopher Manzira (Dublin City Council) (IP)	Discussion 2: Including girls and women in everyday bike riding and cycle infrastructure planning: participatory methods and pathways to their wider adoption - Karen Lee (Solidaria, Australia) (RE)
12.15 - 12.35pm	Book Launch: Prof. Peter Cox (University of Chester) - Cycling Activism: Bike Politics and Social Movements
12.35 - 1.15pm	Lunch

1.15 - 2.45pm	Session 10 - Engagement Meaningful public engagement? - Conor Geraghty (Dún Laoghaire-Rathdown County Council) (IP) Rocking the boat on still waters: experiences of activism within the Portuguese national strategy for cycling mobility - Vera Lúcia Alves Pereira Diogo, Rui Igreja & Mário Alves (Polytechnic Institute of Porto, Portugal) (TBC) Strand Road Trial Cycle Track: The perspective of the Engineer, the Campaigner*, the Councillor and the Residents Association - David Timoney (Dublin Cycling Campaign) (IP) A pedal powered approach to designing a strategic cycle network in smaller cities and towns - Caitríona Corr (South East Technological University and Kilkenny County Council) (IP)	Session 11 - Integration Exploring cycling accessibility and bicycle parking in older buildings in Vancouver, Canada - Jeanette Steinmann, Donna Cumming, Brian Wilson (University of British Columbia, Canada), Tim Welsh, Chelsea Krahn, Tim Davidson, Gavin Davidson, Emily Bardutz (HUB Cycling) (IP) Co-creating Future Bicycle Urbanism with User Data from Living Labs with Autonomous Vehicles - Alex Gaio (Trinity College Dublin) (IP) The policy implications of long-distance rail commuting experiences with a bike in Greater Sydney, Australia - Gordon Waitt & Anna Lewis (University of Wollongong, Australia) (TBC) Potential benefits of the integrated planning of infrastructure maintenance and development: a bike infrastructure example - David Zani (Swiss Federal Institute of Technology in Zurich) (RE)
2.45 - 3pm	Tea & Coffee
3 - 4.30pm	Session 12 – Connections The grief cycle: using cycling as a mechanism to support grief outcomes - Harriet Wingfield (Sheffield Hallam University, UK) (IP) A paper on walking at a cycling conference? Analysing ‘all-inclusive’ Active Travel policy - Nicholas Davies (Glasgow Caledonian University), Graeme Sheriff & Ian Cookson (University of Salford, UK) (IP) Questioning sustainability in smart cities: Unpacking cycling in smart city narratives: The case of Boston, Dublin, Helsinki, Montreal, Moscow, Tokyo, and Vancouver - Mennatullah Hendawy, Nicole Kormann da Silva, Milan Husar, Somaya Kayed (UC Santa Cruz +) (RE) Nature and cycling experiences: an overview of literature - Mel Cairns (University of the West of England, UK) (IP)	Session 13 - Data Walking and Cycling Index Report 2021 - Finola O’Driscoll, Sarah McDonagh (National Transport Authority, Ireland) (IP) How can the public sector join forces with the academic institutions to achieve our common goals - Paul Kennedy (Dún Laoghaire-Rathdown County Council) (IP) Equitable Cycle Investment - Irene McAleese (See.Sense) (IP) Using Focus Groups for better Public Engagement for Active Travel Schemes - Giulia Grigoli (Dún Laoghaire-Rathdown County Council) (IP)
4.30 - 5pm	General announcements & concluding remarks	