

Thursday 7th September
9 – 10am	Tea & Coffee – HIST Conversation Room, Graduates Memorial Building (GMB)
Time	Jonathan Swift Theatre, Arts Building (AB)
10 - 10.30am	Welcome: Graeme Sherriff, Robert Egan Opening Address: Prof. Jane Stout, Minister Eamon Ryan
10.30 - 11.15am	Keynote: Prof. Malene Freudendal-Pederson - Is it all just words? - How do we get from cycling as storytelling to cycling as actual planning
11.15 - 11.30am	Break
	Demo Room, Simon Perry Building (SP)	Jonathan Swift Theatre, AB
11.30am - 1pm	Session 1 - Cycling in Older Age Chair: Damien Ó Tuama Cycling as mobility for older and disabled people in Active Neighbourhoods - Graeme Sherriff, Ian Cookson (University of Salford, UK) (In Person) Planning for longevity: cycling cessation and later life mobility - Wilbert den Hoed (Universitat Rovira i Virgili), Carol Kachadoorian (dbiTilde CORE, Inc.) (IP) Cycling and other Active Mobility Infrastructure for Older Adult Communities: How Common and Complete Are They? - Carol Kachadoorian (dbiTilde CORE, Inc.), Yongping Zhang (California State Polytechnic University, Pomona) (IP) Cycling Without Age – Planning for inclusive, slow social cycling for all ages and abilities - Clara Clark (Cycling Without Age, Ireland) (IP)	Session 2 - Histories Chair: Peter Cox Cycling past and present: an oral histories approach in Sheffield - Stephen Parkes, Mia Rafalowicz-Campbell (Sheffield Hallam University, UK) (IP) (Re)discovering the past, imagining the future: a History Lab for Lisbon’s cycling policies - Diego Cavalcanti, M Luisa Sousa (University of Lisbon, Portugal) (Remote) Cycling boom 2.0 - How grassroots movements triggered new local cycling policies - Martin Lanzendorf (Goethe-University Frankfurt, Germany) (IP) Formulations, frames, and precedents: Unmaking history in public meetings - Karly Coleman (University of Alberta, Canada) (RE)
1 - 1.45pm	Lunch (HIST Conversation Room, GMB)

	Demo Room, SP	MSc Room, SP	Jonathan Swift Theatre, AB
1.45 - 3.15pm	Session 3 - (Bi)cycles Chair: Graeme Sherriff Dublin Bike Library: shared mobility for families - Francesco Pilla, Pavlos Tafidis (University College Dublin) (IP) Evidence from E-Cargo Bike Demonstration Limerick - Anne Cronin & Conor Buckley (Limerick Cycle Campaign) (IP) Exploring cycles as governable objects - Daniel Valentini (Swedish University of Agricultural Sciences) (IP) - DISCUSSION Dublin Bike Library: shared mobility for families - Francesco Pilla, Pavlos Tafidis (University College Dublin) (IP) - DISCUSSION	Session 4 - Cycling in Younger Age Chair: Jane Hackett Safe Routes to School: A collaborative approach to advancing active travel for students - Tracey Lydon (An Taisce EEU - Safe Routes to Schools Programme, Ireland) (IP) Gears or brakes? Active travel policy for children and young people in Scotland - Caroline Brown (Heriot-Watt University, Edinburgh) (IP) Bicycle Heroes: Engaging Youth Voices in Promoting Active Mobility and Safe City Design - Donna Cooney (Project Manager: BYCS Bicycle Heroes Dublin), Martina Mullin (Trinity College Dublin), Niamh Ni Cholmain (Dublin City Council) (IP)	Session 5 - Discourses Chair: Gordon Waitt The “cycling city of Stockholm”: Productive, convenient, and connected mobility for all? - Karin Edberg (Linköping University, Sweden) (IP) Cycleway Opposition in Dún Laoghaire-Rathdown: Exploring the Role of Discourse - Robert Egan & Brian Caulfield (Trinity College Dublin) (IP) Blame Games: The Assignment of Blame in Everyday Traffic Situations Involving Cyclists - Nadia Williams (Technological University Dublin, Ireland) (IP) Contesting the fifteen-minute city: Dispatches from the “cycling city” of Oxford, UK. - Tim Jones (Oxford Brookes University, UK) (IP)
3.15 - 3.45pm	Tea & Coffee – Museum Building Foyer
	Jonathan Swift Theatre, AB
3.45 – 5.15pm	Session 6 - Systems Chair: Brian Caulfield In a society which is resistant to change, what is the best way to deliver active travel infrastructure in a climate emergency? - Michèle Costello & Róisín Ni Dhubhda (Dún Laoghaire-Rathdown County Council) (IP) Cyclist.ie’s Experiences of Engaging with the Planning System on Cycling Schemes - Damien Ó Tuama & Colm Ryder (Cyclist.ie) (IP) The Socio-Political Processes of Cycling Planning in Tehran as a Car-Centric Environment - Mohammad Nazarpour (Tarbiat Modares University, Iran) (RE) Cycle propensity modelling: An extreme cycling uptake study - Billy Brazil, Karen Whitaker, Barry Colleary (National Transport Authority) Robert Egan, Brian Caulfield (Trinity College Dublin) (IP)
5.45 – 7pm	Social Cycle with Dublin Cycling Campaign & Cyclist.ie – Thomas Davis Memorial & Fountain, Dame Street
7pm	Symposium Dinner – Trinity Dining Hall (East)

Friday 8th September
Time	Demo Room, SP	MSc Room, SP
9 - 9.30am	Tea & Coffee – Demo Room
9.30 - 11am	Session 7 - Solidarities Chair: Nadia Williams “My reason to leave the bed”, a mixed methods evaluation of Muslim women’s cycle rides - Esther Anaya-Boig (Independent), Sarah Javaid & Emma Pajarillaga (Cycle Sisters) (RE) Cycling against all odds: families everyday struggles for cycling in socially vulnerable and transport disadvantaged areas - Dag Balkmar (Örebro Universit, Sweden) (RE) Whose streets? Our streets! Bicibús movement for cycling child-friendly cities - Gemma Simón i Más, Anna Aretha Sach (Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona) (IP) Cycle Space Invaders - Gamification of social media as a tool to protect cycle infrastructure - Keith Phelan (vool.ie) (IP)	Session 8 - Spaces Chair: Sarah Rock Build it and they will come? The multiple effects of a new infrastructure on cycling practice and experience - Patrick Rérat & Aurélie Schmassmann (University of Lausanne, Switzerland) (RE) Proactive safety assessments for cycling infrastructure in Ireland: The potential role of the traffic conflict technique and surrogate measures of safety - Kevin Gildea (Lund University, Sweden) (RE) Cycling infrastructures in the North American metropolis: the emerging geographies and differential strategies of infrastructural reconfiguration for cycling in Mexico City and Toronto - Thomas Van Laake (University of Manchester, UK) (IP) Developing Ireland’s Cycle Network – Lessons Learned - Hugh McCarthy (AECOM, Ireland) (IP)
11 - 11.15am	Tea & Coffee – Demo Room
11.15 - 12.15pm	Discussion 1: Chair: Kristina Moody (Dublin City Council) Dublin City Council’s Active Travel Network: An exploratory discussion on maximising societal benefit – Christopher Manzira (Dublin City Council), Sabrina Dekker (Dublin City Council), John Legge (Consultant in Emergency Medicine), Naomi Oldenburg (National Disability Authority), Mary MacSweeney (Dublin City Council) (IP)	Discussion 2: Chair: Karen Lee (Solidaria, Australia) Steady Pedal or Wild Ride? Including girls and women in everyday bike riding and cycle infrastructure planning: participatory methods and pathways to their wider adoption - Gemma Simón i Mas (Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona), Ciara Norton (An Taisce EEU - Green-Schools Travel), Stephanie Stotz Simons (City of Berne) (Hybrid)
12.15 - 12.35pm	Book Launch: Prof. Peter Cox (University of Chester) - Cycling Activism: Bike Politics and Social Movements
12.35 - 1.15pm	Lunch – Museum Building Foyer

1.15 - 2.45pm	Session 9 - Engagement Chair: Robert Egan Meaningful public engagement? - Conor Geraghty (Dún Laoghaire-Rathdown County Council) (IP) Rocking the boat on still waters: experiences of activism within the Portuguese national strategy for cycling mobility - Vera Lúcia Alves Pereira Diogo (Polytechnic Institute of Porto, Portugal), Rui Igreja & Mário Alves (MUBi - Associação pela Mobilidade Urbana em Bicicleta) (IP) Strand Road Trial Cycle Track: The perspective of the Engineer, the Campaigner*, the Councillor and the Residents Association - David Timoney (Dublin Cycling Campaign) (IP) A pedal powered approach to designing a strategic cycle network in smaller cities and towns - Caitríona Corr (South East Technological University and Kilkenny County Council) (IP)	Session 10 - Integration Chair: Keyvan Hosseini Exploring cycling accessibility and bicycle parking in older buildings in Vancouver, Canada - Jeanette Steinmann, Donna Cumming, Brian Wilson (University of British Columbia, Canada), Tim Welsh, Chelsea Krahn, Tim Davidson, Gavin Davidson, Emily Bardutz (HUB Cycling) (IP) Co-creating Future Bicycle Urbanism with User Data from Living Labs with Autonomous Vehicles - Alex Gaio (Trinity College Dublin) (IP) The policy implications of long-distance rail commuting experiences with a bike in Greater Sydney, Australia - Gordon Waitt & Anna Lewis (University of Wollongong, Australia) (IP) Potential benefits of the integrated planning of infrastructure maintenance and development: a bike infrastructure example - David Zani (Swiss Federal Institute of Technology in Zurich) (RE)
2.45 - 3pm	Tea & Coffee – Demo Room
3 - 4.30pm	Session 11 - Data Chair: Caitriona Corr Using Focus Groups for Public Engagement of Active Travel Schemes: The Deansgrange Road Cycle Route Example - Giulia Grigoli (Dún Laoghaire-Rathdown County Council) (IP) Walking and Cycling Index Report 2021 - Finola O’Driscoll, Sarah McDonagh (National Transport Authority, Ireland) (IP) How can the public sector join forces with the academic institutions to achieve our common goals - Paul Kennedy (Dún Laoghaire-Rathdown County Council) (IP) Equitable Cycle Investment - Irene McAleese (See.Sense) (IP)	Session 12 - Connections Chair: Caroline Brown A paper on walking at a cycling conference? Analysing ‘all-inclusive’ Active Travel policy - Nicholas Davies (Glasgow Caledonian University), Graeme Sherriff, Ian Cookson, & David Young (University of Salford, UK) (IP) Nature and cycling experiences: a literature review - Mel Cairns (University of the West of England,UK) (IP) E-bike to the future: eco-efficiency and decision-making Implications of Dublin's e-bike-sharing system - Keyvan Hosseini, Tushar Pramod Choudhari, Margaret O’Mahony, Brian Caulfield (Trinity College Dublin) (IP)
4.30 - 5pm	General Announcements & Concluding Remarks – Demo Room	